Join Girls Without Limits! for week long camps this summer! Campers will explore the world of Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, & Math and STEAM's connection to social justice! We will learn through games, hands-on activities, field trips, and visits with professional mentors!

We will visit a private observatory and Lunar Lab! We will learn science through cooking! We will hear about climate justice from indigenous activists and you'll get to make things for your own home apothecary!
