

STUDENT TEACHERS & INTERNS

The Superintendent or designee may enter into agreements with colleges or universities having state-approved educator training programs for the purpose of providing experience for students preparing to become teachers, specialists or school administrators. All assignments will be made in compliance with District procedures.

The Superintendent or designee may also enter into agreements with colleges or universities for the purpose of providing experience for students not in a state-approved educator training program. Such experience will not be recognized by the District as satisfying student-teacher or other requirements for educator certification.
