Mission Statement

Capital High School is committed to a caring, motivating environment in which our students develop the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and self-worth to succeed in this diverse, changing world.

About Our School

Capital High School is a grade 9-12, "AAAA" National Blue Ribbon award winner. Capital offers a comprehensive curriculum with advanced course work available in every curriculum area.

Additional academic programs include opportunities at New Market Vocational Skill Center, Running Start, School to Work, and the International Baccalaureate Program, which is a rigorous pre-university course of study. Three quarters of Capital's students participate in athletics and activities.

Parent and community involvement include the following organizations: Site Council, Foundation, Booster Club, and Parent Organization.

Additions to Capital High School have increased student capacity from 1389 to 1680. The latest remodeling effort, completed in 2006, added 12 new classrooms, including new science and technology labs. The student commons section and kitchen space has been expanded to accommodate all students over two lunch periods. The renovation also included substantial upgrades to the drama, music, art and special education learning areas.

You Are Invited

The Olympia School District welcomes and encourages volunteer involvement from parents and other members of the community. Every year, more than 3,600 citizens donate their time to Olympia schools, giving nearly 150,000 hours. Examples of volunteer work include tutoring students, helping out in school libraries or offices, assisting teachers with daily assignments or special projects, being a guest speaker, serving as an Art Partner or Lunch Buddy, and serving on School-Based Management Councils, planning, or advisory committees. To volunteer, drop by or call Capital High School at 596-8000.
