This camp is designed for the elementary, and middle school aged players with or without experience in the sport of soccer. The camp will be focused on the technical, tactical, physical and psychological demands of playing soccer. The camp curriculum has been developed collaboratively by Coaches Adriana Montes and Tamara Liska. The camp will offer players the skills needed to succeed in the sport of soccer. Student athletes will be implementing the sessions designed by the coaches. All players must wear soccer cleats and shin guards and have water to participate. Please have them bring a small snack if they feel they'll need it.

OHS: Please mail registration and payment to your feeder school and checks made to OHS ASB or call Theresa Hays in OHS ASB office for Credit card payments prior to June 19

CHS feeder schools, pay directly to the ASB office, call in with credit card payment

Cash or check accepted for day of walk up registrations for both schools
