
CERTIFICATE OF EDUCATIONAL COMPETENCY
RELEASE FOR GED DIPLOMA

A student who is 16 years of age or older but under 19 years of age and who has a substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school program, or who has been home schooled may make application, at the option of the applicant, to the resident district or the school last attended in the state of Washington, for a release for a GED diploma. The application must be signed by the student's parent if the applicant is under 18 and be signed by a building administrator. Substantial and warranted reasons for leaving the regular high school education program means one or more of the following:

- A. Personal problems which seriously impair the student's ability to make reasonable progress toward high school graduation.
- B. A financial crisis which directly affects the student and necessitates the student's employment during school hours.
- C. The lack of curriculum and instruction which constitute appropriate learning experiences for the student.
- D. The inability or failure of the school of attendance to adjust its program for the individual or otherwise make arrangements for enrollment in a program in a manner which enables the student to advance toward graduation with reasonable progress and success.
- E. The student has been home-schooled.
- F. The student has entered a postsecondary institution, the military, or full time employment.

The District shall make provisions for an appeal process for any student who feels the denial to apply for a certificate of educational competency was unwarranted.

Certificates of educational competency shall be awarded by the state Superintendent of Public Instruction and the state board for community and technical colleges.
